Illustrated Catalogues, price 1s. 6d.

Printed by J. Davy & Sons, Ltd., 8-9, Frith-street Soho-square, London, W.1 England.

CONDITIONS OF SALE.

- I. The highest bidder to be the buyer. If any dispute arise the Auctioneer shall have absolute discretion to settle it; and to put any disputed lot up again.
- II. No person to advance less than 1s.; above five pounds 2s. 6d.; and so on in proportion.
- III. All lots are sold subject to the right of the seller or his agent to bid or else to impose a reserve.
- IV. The purchasers to give in their names and places of abode, and, if required, to pay down 10s. in the pound in part payment of the purchase-money, in default of which the lot or lots purchased to be immediately put up again and re-sold.
- V. The lots to be taken away, at the buyer's expense, immediately after the conclusion of the sale; in default of which Messrs. SOTHEY & Co. will not hold themselves responsible if lost, stolen, damaged, or otherwise destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser. If, at the expiration of One Week after the conclusion of the sale, the books or other property are not cleared or paid for, they will then be catalogued for immediate sale, and the expenses, the same as if re-sold, will be added to the amount at which the books were bought. Messrs. SOTHEY & Co. will have the option of re-selling the lots uncleared, either by public or private sale, without any notice being given to the defaulter.
- VI. All the books are presumed to be perfect, unless otherwise expressed: but if, upon collating, any should prove defective, the purchaser will be at liberty to take or reject them, provided they are received back within Fourteen Days after the conclusion of the sale, when the purchase-money will be returned.
- VII. The sale of any book or books is not to be set aside on account of any worm holes, stained or short leaves of text or plates, want of list of plates or blank leaves, or on account of the publication of any subsequent volume, supplement, appendix, or plates. All the manuscripts, autographs, all magazines and reviews, all books in lots, and all tracts in lots or volumes, will be sold with all faults, imperfections and errors of description. The sale of any illustrated book, lot of prints or drawings, is not to be set aside on account of any error in the enumeration of the numbers stated, or error of description.
- VIII. No Imperfect Book will be taken back, unless a note accompanies each book, stating its imperfections, with the number of lot and date of the sale at which the same was purchased.
- IX. To prevent inaccuracy in the delivery, and inconvenience in the settlement of the purchases, no lot can on any account be removed during the time of sale.
- X. Upon failure of complying with the above conditions, the money required and deposited in part of payment shall be forfeited; and if any loss is sustained in the re-selling of such lots as are not cleared or paid for, all charges on such re-sale shall be made good by the defaulters at this sale.

Messrs. SOTHEY & Co. are prepared to advise intending purchasers, as far as possible, and will execute bids on their behalf, free of charge. Lots will be procured as cheaply as is permitted by other bids or reserves, if any.

The Property of Dr. G. S. Malik.

- 223 DĀSTĀN-I-AMĪR HAMZAH "The Romance of Amīr Hamzah", who was granted the title Asad-ullah "Lion of God" by the Prophet Muhammad. One Leaf of the MS. written according to Abul Fazl in twelve volumes with 1400 illustrations by the greatest artists of the day, and illuminated by Mir Sayyad 'Ali of Tabriz, in or soon after 1556, and considered to have been executed certainly in the early years of the reign of Akbar, as they mark the transitional interval between the work of the Timurid School and that of the Mughal School.

The painting is executed in tempera colours and gold, on cotton fabric treated with a slip and polished, backed by paper on which is the text in Nasta'liq; the text being considered to be by Khwāja 'Abduccamad of Shiraz, entitled Shirin-qalam "Sweet Pen", who entered the service of Humayun in 1549. It is assumed that Akbar, to please his Moslem subjects, caused these books to be destroyed, retaining some of the pictures, which evidently fell into the hands of Aurangzib, as some in the Vienna Collections bear his library seal dated 1688.

Of those known to be in existence, twenty-five are in the Indian Section of the Victoria and Albert Museum, and sixty-one in the Österreichisches Museum für Kunst und Industrie, and a few others in private hands. On many of these drawings the faces have been defaced by Moslem fanatics.

The subject of the illustration on this specimen is not discoverable by the text on the back, which deals with some other part of the story. It is a group of twenty-six figures, whose faces have not been purposely spoiled, in front of four tents, some engaged in flaying a man for whom a sufficient ransom has not been paid, as the treasurer has loosened the balance in his grasp and is apparently dissatisfied with the amount of silver nuggets in the bowls before him, while two women, whose camels suggest their recent arrivals, watch him with distress. The miniature itself agrees with the usual size of other known specimens, but has its full margins, now considerably worn, but at one time decorated with animated subjects, and the text at the back; full size, $31\frac{3}{4}$ in. by $23\frac{1}{4}$ in.; framed.

- 320 WESLEY (John) A. L. s. 1 p 8vo, Bristol, Sept. 22, 1788, to his sister :

As John Astley has deserted me and George Whitfield is but just come into his place, I do not yet know anything of my own circumstances.

- 321 WASHINGTON (George) A. L. s. 1 p. 4to, Williamsburg, Decr. 16, 1769, drawing money

- 322 DICKENS (Charles) A. L. s. 2 pp. 8vo, 21 Aug. 1858, an amusing letter concerning the arrangements for his Northern Tour, with the original envelope signed in the corner by Dickens

- 323 CHARLES I. Indenture signed while Prince of Wales, on vellum 1627

- 324 MARIE ANTOINETTE, Doc. s. making an appointment in her Household, on vellum 1773

The Property of the late Sir George Alexander.

SOLD BY ORDER OF LADY ALEXANDER.

- 325 HARDY (Thomas) A VERY FINE A. L. s. 3 pp. 8vo, Max Gate, Sept. 12, 1892, to Mr. (afterwards Sir George) Alexander :

The story to which you refer begins in the Illustrated London News on the 1st. Oct. and ends at Christmas . . . It would fall incidentally into 3 Acts—in the first the man is 20, in the second, 40 and in the third 60 years of age.

This refers to "The Pursuit of the Well-Beloved : A Sketch of Temperament"

- 326 HARDY (Thomas) A. L. s. 2½ pp. 8vo, Max Gate, Oct. 7, 1892, to the same and referring to "THE PURSUIT OF THE WELL-BELOVED" :

. . . I find that, though it seems to promise well for the chief male characters, there is rather a formidable difficulty about the womankind . . . But I should like you to read the story.

- 327 HARDY (Thomas) A. L. s. 1 p. 8vo, Max Gate, Sept. 1, 1916 to the same :

Would you be willing to read a play by a friend of mine and my Wife's who calls himself "E. Worlingworth". . . I may say at once that I am not the Author . . .

- 328 WILDE (Oscar) A. L. s. 1 p. 8vo, n. d. to the same :

Come and see me tomorrow—Sunday—if you are in Chelsea and congratulate me, as I am sure you will, on the baby!

- 329 WILDE (Oscar) A VERY FINE A. L. s. 8 pp. 8vo, 16 Tite St. n. d. to the same :

. . . as you wished to see my somewhat farcial comedy, I send you the first copy of it. It is called "Lady Lancing" on the cover; but the real title is "THE IMPORTANCE OF BEING EARNEST," when you read the play, you will see the punning title's meaning. I know and admire Pinero's work, but who is Jones? I have never heard of Jones. Have you?

- 330 WILDE (Oscar) A FINE A. L. s. "Oscar," 8 pp. 8vo, The Haven, Worthing, n. d. to the same, referring to the Importance of being Earnest :

. . . I thought from your silence that you thought the play too farcical . . for a theatre like your own . . . As regards the American rights; when you go to the States, it won't be to produce a farcical comedy—you will go as a romantic actor of modern and costume pieces—my play, though the dialogue is sheer comedy, is the best I have ever written.

- 331 WILDE (Oscar) A. L. s. 5 pp. 8vo, Hotel D'Alsace, Paris (July 1900), The year of his death, to the same :

My dear Aleck,

It was really a great pleasure to see you again, and to receive your friendly grasp of the hand after so many years . . . I know now how to value things like that . . .

He concludes by saying that if Alexander will send him £20 the first of every month, he (Wilde) would have before him a year free from worry, and perhaps he might do something Alexander would like.

- 332 WILDE (Oscar) A. L. s. 7 pp. 8vo, 16 Tite Street, n. d. to the same :

. . . I can't get a grip of the play yet—I can't get my people real . . . You will be interested to hear that the Duchess of Padua was produced in New York last Wednesday . . . it was a great and huge success . . . I am delighted to hear you had a brilliant opening at the St. James'.

- 333 WILDE (Oscar) AN IMPORTANT A. L. s. 12 pp. 8vo, 16 Tite St. n. d. to the same, concerning "LADY WINDERMERE'S FAN" :

I heard by chance in the theatre today—after you had left the stage—that you intended using the first scene a second time—in the last act. I think you should have told me this . . . you have not given me what I wanted, and what my position, as the creator of the play, entitles me to . . . Pray give your serious attention to all these points.

 One of the finest Wilde letters ever offered for sale.

Other Properties.

- 333A WILDE (Oscar) A. L. s. 2 pp. 8vo, Woodstock, Ontario, May, 1882 :
 I have been obliged to alter my Boston lecture to next Friday, so will not be in New York till the next week. . . . I have had a charming time here and very large audiences. . . . What paper! What ink!! what an envelope!!!
- 333B SHAW (G. Bernard) A. L. s. 2 pp. 8vo, 10, Adelphi Terrace, June, 1900, mentioning the Devil's Disciple :

- 339 DICKENS (Charles) Two A. L. s. 5 pp. 8vo. (one initials), Broadstairs and Bonchurch, 1845 and 9, to SIR T. N. TALFOURD :

The first deals with a contemplated visit to Manchester and his objection to stopping in private houses "we might be prodigiously comfortable at a good Inn!" The second letter deals with a legal matter and mentions Lord Denman.

THACKERAY (W. M.) A. L. s. 1 p. 8vo, October 7th. (n. y.) to Mr. Newmarch

My Mother is still at Mennecy Seine-et-Oise and I think it more likely that the children will go to her than that she will come here; for I shall be absent from London for the greater part of the Autumn and Winter . . .

DODGSON (C. L.) A. L. s. 1880, to Mrs. Letchworth :

. . . I hope you sympathised in the joy of Oxford at ousting Harcourt. He had been so outrageously cheeky that his down-fall was a thing delightful to witness . . .

with other letters of Admiral Lord Howe, 1787, mentioning the loss of H.M.S. Thunderer, Benjamin West, P. R. A., Bernard Barton, Leigh Hunt, Chas. Kingsley, Douglas Jerrold, W. C. Macready, etc. in a 4to album

- 371 COWLEY (Abraham) A. L. s. 1 p. 4to, n. d. [to Dr. Busby], laid down and three letters very slightly shaved:

I should have made you this mean present before, but yt. I have bin out of Town, and as some things are too great, soe this is too little to bee sent far. If I were not well acquainted wth. your Candour, and yr. particular favour to mee, it would have been madness to venture this Criminal in the presence of soe great and soe long practised a Judge of these matters. It may bee a little entertainment for some of yr. Scholars... Etc.

- 513A DICKENS (Charles) A VERY FINE AND EARLY A. L. s. 3 pp. 8vo, Furnival's Inn, Saturday Morning (n. y.), to Mrs. Austin, concerning money that he had borrowed from her :

. . . when you reminded me of the debt, I was, and had been for months previously, up all night and asleep all day, and that from that happy state of existence I was transferred to one of illness . . . I only returned to reside in my Chambers yesterday . . . I have some money to receive for my writings in about a fortnight's time, and I hope you will then grant me a full pardon as well as a receipt in full.

- 513B DICKENS (C.) A VERY FINE AND EARLY A. L. s. 2 pp. 8vo, Furnival's Inn, Monday Morning (n. y.), to Mrs. Austin :

Inclosed is £5:10:0—the amount I am indebted to you, which I forward with many thanks for your very kind patience. . . . I have had many heavy and pressing demands upon me, during the past year; and that although I have been indefatigable in industry and perseverance, the numerous irons I have been putting in the fire, for the past twelve months, are only just beginning to get warm . . . Accept my warmest thanks for your kindness and attention in inviting Miss Hogarth to your party on Tuesday . . .

 Dickens married Miss Hogarth April 2nd, 1836.

- 513C DICKENS (C.) Visiting Card, with an addressed and franked envelope (2)

Other Properties.

- 513D DICKENS (C.) A. L. s. (3rd person) 1 p. 8vo, Gad's Hill, n. d. to Mr. Hoole :

. . . as the window in St. George's Church appropriately carried out the prevailing spirit of the tale at its conclusions, Mr. Dickens made a reference to it. He knew it was not as old as the date of the Story, but did not consider that slight anachronism of any importance.

- A. L. s. "C. D." ½ p. 8vo, 1860 : "He will not be at the office until Tuesday week, feeling in want of rest" (2)

- 513E ROSSETTI (D. G.) ELEVEN AUTO. LETTERS bearing dates from Aug. 16th to Nov. 6th, 1869, mainly 3 or 4 pp. one signed in full, one "D. G. Rossetti" others "Gabriel" or initials. The first two letters deal with the renewal of a money bill and shares; five letters addressed to C. A. Howell relate to the recovery of MS. Poems interred in the coffin of the Poet's wife; and four letters of a general character addressed to H. W. Bruce, and C. A. Howell. Then follows a MS. Sonnet "John Keats," 15 lines

Included are two A. L. s. from Elizabeth Siddall to Rossetti; two Sonnets by him in the handwriting of W. M. Rossetti. The original receipt for £2 2s. 0d. paid by Howell to a firm of undertakers for their work at Highgate, and two Letters from the Home Secretary (H. W. Bruce); and photographs, etc. of Pictures by the Artist. The whole in an Album; from the Fairfax-Murray collection

- 513F ELIOT (George) A VERY EARLY A. L. s. 3 pp. 8vo, "Mary Anne Evans," Griff, Wednesday, Jan. 6, 1836, to Miss Lewis, expressing her anxiety as to the health of her Mother and Father

- 513G WATT (James), Engineer. A. L. s. 1 p. 4to, Heathfield, Feb. 2nd, 1818, to Mr. Mosley, asking if anything had been done to procure some settlement for Mrs. L.; Rules adopted by the Journeymen Millwrights, London, Printed by G. Baine, 1801; and 2 others (4)

- 513H GORDON (Charles George), General. A. L. s. 1½ pp. 8vo, Bidden, 23 July, 1875, to H. Dixon:

... How any one can wish to come up here is astonishing, the only at all endurable post is the chief command and that is the life of a dog. with stamped envelope

The Property of Sir C. V. Nepean, Bt.

Westleigh, Warminster, Wilts.

- 514 AMERICA. BOND (Phineas) British Consul in Philadelphia. Three interesting A. L. s., February-March, 1806 to Sir Evan Nepean,

Describes the fitting out of a large Merchant-Ship the Leander; expects confirmation that Popham is in possession of Buenos Ayres; describes General Moreau's reception in the United States and says that Moreau speaks with infinite freedom of Bonaparte's unjust arbitrary and oppressive conduct, opines that 80,000 picked French troops, fairly landed in England would have no difficulty in marching to London and conquer the Country. Bond goes on to say "Vanity has no small share in a Position of this sort."

—COOKE (Edward) Under Secretary for War, A. L. s. to Nepean, March 1805, concerning the land settlements with the Six tribes, endorsed "CONFIDENTIAL," with 2 other letters of American interest and two printed papers (7)

(3 parcels)
- 520 KEITH (Admiral Lord) Two A. L. s. Aboukir Bay and Off Alexandria, April and July 1801, to Nepean
... about American Seamen, I am much distressed our people are not always correct, but they hate us so much as to covet any opportunity of Insulting us, and their Consuls are such rascals as to sell Passports to any man for ten shillings.
—POPHAM (Rear-Admiral Sir Home) A. L. s. 6 pp. 4to, Rio de la Plata, July 19th. 1806
I have just returned from Buenos Ayres to dispatch the Narcissus with the account of the capture of that City. I shall then proceed to the blockade of Monte Veido . . . in plain English with this little Squadron of five ships have taken in the course of Six months the Capitals of South Africa and South America.
—COLLINGWOOD (Admiral Lord) A. L. s. 1806, mentioning the late Lord Nelson—PARKER (Vice-Admiral Sir Wm.) A. L. s. 1801

- 521 NELSON (Admiral Viscount) A VERY FINE A. L. s. 4 pp. 4to, Victory Jan. 14, 1804, to Nepean "Private"

... Your King, Country and friends all in their several stations benefit so much by your ability and kindness that none of the three partys can spare you.

He goes on to speak of the bad conditions of several war ships

... the Gibraltar's upper works are actually separating from her bottom, The Kent is very bad, Renown we have just coil'd her with three inch rope. She will soon be ruined, Superb we have with large iron bolts ... I shall complain no more, I ought at this time of service to know what ships and men can do ... I have asserted that if we do not secure Sardinia, France will have it. I am now keeping it from invasion, 8000 men are ready to start from Corsica ... I hope the French fleet will now soon put to sea.

A LETTER OF GREAT INTEREST AND IN THE FINEST STATE OF PRESERVATION

- 522 NELSON (Admiral Viscount) A. L. s. 1 p. 4to, St. George, June 15th. 1801, "SECRET" to Nepean

10,000 thanks for your truly kind letter, I will not say flattering because you formed and told me your opinion of men and things exactly as I have found them, the real friends of Sir Hyde would wish for no enquiry for although I am sure there has been nothing in the shape of criminality, yet idleness is the root of all evil, of that I have seen enough. I have much to say to you and for ever shall feel myself your truly abliged

Nelson & Bronte.

- 523 NELSON (Admiral Viscount) A. L. s. 1 p. 4to, 23 Piccadilly, Nov. 21, 1802, to Nepean, MENTIONING LADY HAMILTON

... I had forgot that Mr. Yonge and his family a near relative of Mrs. Nelson have been long engaged to come to Merton ... I wish I knew where Mr. Elliot lived that I might call and see Lady Hamilton and Sir William wish very much to see him ...

- 524 NELSON (Admiral Viscount) A. L. s. 1 p. 4to, 23 Piccadilly, Feb. 28, 1803, to Nepean

In confidence I send you a copy of a paper (of ideas) which I have for the reasons set forth in the first lines of my paper thought it right to send to Lord St. Vincent, something is absolutely necessary to be done and soon, or fatal consequences may follow the omission ...

with four copies of letters from Nelson to Nepean and Admiral Lord St. Vincent (5)

- 525 NEPEAN (Sir Evan) L. s. 3 pp. folio, Admiralty Office, 5th. April, 1801, to Admiral Sir Hyde Parker giving instructions for the attack on Copenhagen. Apparently the draft of the letter for Parker, with many auto. corrections by Nepean

528A PITT (William) Four A. L. s. to Nepean on Naval matters—CANNING (George) Two A. L. s. with others of Lord St. Helens, Lord Melville, Admiral Barrington; and others (55)

529 ST. VINCENT (John Jervis, Earl of) Admiral of the Fleet, A VERY FINE CORRESPONDENCE comprising 175 A. L. s., 16 L. s. and 28 enclosures, addressed to Sir Evan Nepean, written during the Admiral's office of Commander-in-Chief in the Mediterranean 1797-1802. The letters give a very graphic account of these critical years, and contain many interesting and important references to Lord Nelson—almost the only man in his Fleet that he had anything favourable to report upon (200)

I think it probable that the French Squadron has the Brazels for its destination, the possession of that Noble Country wou'd amply make up for the loss of their other Colonys and the devastation in St. Domingo. Either Sir Alan Gardner, or I must retire from this Squadron, or the King's Service will suffer essentially . . .

Collingwood has won my heart by coming out so soon . . . Lord Pelham communicated his idea of sending the convicts to New South Wales . . . my opinion was, and is, that a very large expense will be incurr'd without any benefit . . .

As it is probable the French will have some adventures, in the Gulf of St. Lawrence, a Flag Officer will be necessary at Hallifax, as well as Newfoundland . . .

ST. VINCENT. QUOTATIONS, CORRESPONDENCE, 1797-8

You must let me run home for a month or two, in the Winter, or I shall not hold out the war, which will last two years longer, unless Nelson crushes the Armada . . . Nelson has fifteen ships of two decks, and all my frigates, but two, the Leander is so well commended, she will do up one of the Venetian ships in half an hour—I will venture to assert, that in the British Navy, a Squadron so man'd, appointed and commanded, cannot be made up—and I feel quite at ease, for the final event . . .

Nelson will do Bounaparte's business, and accomplish Mr. Dundas's wishes.

There is such a faction against Nelson here, that I wish you would order all the Admirals above him to England, or elsewhere, immediately—the Service cannot go on unless you do this . . .

It is a little unfortunate that this reptile Capt. Knight should by accident have come to me again . . .

I am happy to give Nelson the powerful support, he will receive from the Alexander.

Lord Spencer will shew you the list for Nelson's Squadron and I think you will agree with me, a better cannot be compos'd.

The Spanish officer who came off with a flag of truce yesterday told us Nelson was blocking up Buonaparte in Malta, in the same manner, we blocked Cadiz, and seemed to enjoy it much . . .

Now you have given Sir Robt. Calder, a title, I will tell you, honestly, that he encouraged, nay originated, the faction abt. Nelson, and join'd in the cry.

You have dam'd the Service, to all eternity, by giving way to the scoundrels in the Western Squadron . . . If there were a Flag Officer on your list, capable of commanding this Fleet, I would resign to-morrow, as it is, I must drag on.

I observe in a Newspaper, that Sir Sydney Smith is talked of, for this Service, I beg you will prevent it, for I want none of your "Soi-disant" heroes, pray keep them all to yourself . . . if you send me another Admiral from England, I will strike me Flag, directly.

. . . to suspend my appointment would degrade me, when I want your support against the continual attempts of those under my command to sap the foundation of my authority—and unless I am sustain'd, I shall instantly retire. Unless I have people under me on whom I can depend it will be impossible to carry on the Kings Service.

Sir R. Calder is agitated and alarm'd with this anchorage; he is without shirts, table linen, stocks of everykind with scarce a coat to his back, consequently will thank you to deliver him from these evils—the sooner the better . . .

I can trace to Lord H. Seymour, who from narrow prejudice has done his country irreparable injury, for had I been furnished with this force, instead of your overgrown Fleet lying at Spithead hatching sedition and mutiny the French could never have rear'd their heads with in the Mediterranean.

. . . the old stuff I can trust out of my sight but the others shew their great dissatisfaction on being kept so long at sea, and make me sick.

Formed as your Board is, I am not surprized at the letter you were ordered to write, which I would not endure, for one moment, but for the critical state of Naval operations in these seas, which would suffer in the extreme, was I to avail myself of the permission . . . to return to England . . . but I confess myself not Christian enough, either to forget, or forgive, those, who have most unjustly condemned me unheard.

Describes in nautical language a "dressing-down" he gave to two Captains who had obstructed the Inspector of Marines.

- 530 SALT (Henry) Traveller. Consul-General in Egypt. Four A.L. s. Cairo, 1816-19, to Nepean, he writes as Agent for the East India Company and describes the condition of affairs in the Mediterranean, he learns that the Americans under the pretence of landing stores, have succeeded in obtaining possession of Port Mahon—FORBES (T.) East India Company's Agent at Mocha, concerning MUNGO PARKE—THATCHER (Captain) Account of his Journey to the Forest of Darampore, 1807, MS. 26 pp. folio; and another (7)

- 531 SMITH (Admiral Sir Sidney) Five A. L. s. to Nepean, one written during his imprisonment after capture, another admitting that he has been forbidden to write to Nepean by Lord St. Vincent, with three documents concerning the payments for his escape from Paris—DUTCH FLEET. Report from Capt. von Dirckink demanding payment for the surrender of the Bataviun Squadron and others of naval interest (30)

- 532 TROUBRIDGE (Rear-Admiral Sir Thomas) Led the Line at the Battle of St. Vincent 1797. Nine A. L. s. 1800, to Nepean and St. Vincent, mentioning the peace with America

Lord Nelson will never come without Lady H., she has been told that she cannot be rec'd at St. James's. I am sorry the Americans have made the peace, I think it likely they will now grow troublesome to us, the French Interest is gaining in America . . .

He goes on to express his pleasure that Malta has been captured and presses its importance to Britain. Speaks slightly of several "old women" Captains . . . these old Ladies which have forgot all they ever knew.

—BATAVIAN NAVY. Report on the Establishment and Personal, 1790 and 1794, MS. 9 pp. folio—REPORTS from Agents on Naval Affairs from Copenhagen, Paris, St. Petersburg, The Hague, etc. 1799-1802 (39)

- 540 FRÉRON (Louis Stanislas) Represented the Convention at Toulon, devoted to the Robespierres, obliged to aid the Revolution of the 9th Thermidor, full A. L. s., Paris le 24 prairial an iv^e, to Paul Barras, strongly recommending le Citoyen Bressaud to him as a good and brave patriot, and detailing his services against the Royalists
- 541 HAYDN (J. F.) Auto. Music, 2 pp. oblong folio, clearly written, for two trebles and two basses, endorsed by Fanny Burney "June 5. 1795 Rec'd from Dr. Haydn"
- 542 TSCHAIKOVSKY (P. I.) A. L. s. 4 full pp. 4to, Klin près Moscou, 2^e Août, 1892, in French
 Apologising for not writing in German in which his orthography is very weak. He gives his proposed programme of a concert of his works, specifying Suite No. 3, Serenade for strings, and the Casse-Noisette Suite de Ballet (Der Nusskracker) which he has just composed. He mentions his Concerto No. 1, in Si Mol Minor, and praises Wassili Sapellnikoff, etc.
543. SHAW (George Bernard) A. L. s. 2 pp. 8vo, 27 February, 1884, to Mrs. Radford
 A humorous letter respecting Mr. Radford's invitation to lunch. He forearms her against himself . . . "I am a species of savage and cannot be entertained like a civilized man. In short, I am a vegetarian. On my birthday, and on public holidays, I eat peas pudding and baked potatoes . . . I am afraid you will find to your cost, I talk intolerably . . . It is a dreadful thing to meet the eye of a hostess whose good things you have refused. I had almost rather eat a beefsteak than face it. You know the worst now," etc.
- 544 MOORE (George) A. L. s. 2 pp. 8vo, to Mr. Bainton, sending Synge's "Dierdin" which he recommends to Mr. B's son as suitable for an opera, to be set to music, and warns him against the flimsy affected nonsense which young people are apt to mistake for masteepieces, with envelope [1918]
- 545 BOSSUET (J. B.) Doc. s. "Jacobus Benignus Eys. Condoniensis," 1 p. oblong folio, with Episcopal seal, 12 May, 1677, vellum, a presentation to a benefice

- 546 BLAKE (Robert) Admiral, L. s. "Rob. Blake," 1 p. folio, Whitehall, 14th Decr., to the Admiralty

Captain Stoakes tells him that the frigate he commands and the Bryer have been disabled through the late foul weather. They are forced to remain in harbour when they ought to be as sea for the advancement and safety of Trade. He urges that supplies and cordage be sent to them at Plymouth.

- 547 FOUQUIER-TINVILLE (A. Q.) L'Accusateur Public of the French Revolution, L. s. "A. Q. Fouquier," 2 pp. 4to, 24 messidor l'an second de la Republique (July 12, 1794), a fortnight before the Thermidor Revolution, to the Judge at Lagny Inviting him to send any papers or particulars against Jean Guillot arrested at Paris, who appears to be a counter-revolutionary. Fouquier has nothing to prove it. In default of that indicate some witnesses. The judge's reply is on the same letter. His predecessor and he can find nothing against this man send him a copy of the judge's original note and he will make researches.

- 548 SCHILLER (J. F.) A. L. s. "Schiller," 3 pp. 4to, Jena, 7 August, '97, to the composer Zelter, Goëthe's friend

Schiller thanks Zelter for his beautiful melodies, especially "Au Mignon." His friend Mendelsohn describes much of the music for the Reiterlied (the famous song "Frisch Auf Kameraden Aufs Pferd aufs Pferd," from "Wallenstein"). He does not send more parts of his Tragedy because he has not completed it, and won't let it go out of his hands. He sends a ballad and a poem which are suitable for music. As to "Die Worte des Glaubers," Zelter can decide.

- 549 BIRON (Armand L. de Goutaut) Duc de Lauzun, guillotined 1793, General in the American Revolution, Author of the "Mémoires de Lauzun," A. L. s. $\frac{1}{2}$ p. 4to, 2 août, 1789, mentioning the Duke of Queensbury, etc.

- 550 DUMAS (Alexandre, père) Auto. Poem signed, 24 lines, 1 p. folio :

Que cherche-tu sur notre terre étrange
Esprit du ciel, perdu dans nos chemins.
Ne crains-tu pas de blesser tes pieds d'ange,
Aux durs cailloux de nos sentiers humains ?
etc.

Just at this moment dearest prince, I have had a hint that in Melekinski and in the environs of Gorjatschkinski all the game has been completely exterminated by Bibikov and Glebov. It is no good going there any more.

Yours very truly,
Count Leo Tolstoi.

575 TOLSTOI (Leo) A. L. s. 1 full p. 8vo, n. y., to the same:

I would really come to your ball, dearest prince, if—as once Wassili Gortschakow wrote to me—I had a pair of really elegant trousers. But I fear that my trousers and swallow-tail coat would not harmonize with the elegance of your ball, as those trousers, etc. were made in 1856. But you have the kind habit of brushing aside all difficulties, and if you will lend me your tail-coat and trousers or those of Mr. H. Samarine, notwithstanding that they would be too small and inconvenient for me. But joking apart, I could not come to your ball; I am just starting for Toula, but will not fail to call before I depart.

Yours
Count Leo Tolstoi.

- 576 [BALLOONING]. A. L. s. "Robertson," 2 pp. 4to [n. y.], in French :

The Académie would like to know approximately, the cost of a great balloon ascent for scientific discoveries. Without saying definitely, he thinks it would cost from 1500 to 2000 fcs. The acid is the most costly and it would require 100 poudres. The other charges are les tonneaux de fer et les tuyaux de fer. He would construct the balloon at his own expence etc., etc.

Weak in the folds

Wichand 5th September — 1788 — 6 —

Here am I again, dear Madam, dating my letter from this nurt of the Summer, this elbow of existence; — and here am
I in the middle of my harvest, without good-weather when I may have Reapers, & without Reapers when I may have good weather. — The tremendous thunder-storm of yesterday & the lurid fog of this morning have driven me, for refuge from the Hyochondria which I fear worse than the devil, to my Merch; so I have this last minute brought it to Tues, & this present minute have sat down to give you a copy of it.

O. to Robt. Latham, Esq. of Cth W^{try}.
When Nature her great Masterpiece designed,
And framed her last best work — The Human Mind,
& eye intent on all the mazy plan,
Informed of various parts the various man.

When first, she calls the Useful many & Useful,
Plain, Reading, Industry & sober Worth,
The neat Seamstresses, Farmers, native sons of earth,
And Merchants, whose genus take their birth;
Each pendent of a warm existence finds,
And all Mechanics many-ap varied kinds. —
Some parse & thee are wanted yet,
The lead & bury are needed to the net. —
The Caput moltum, & grop desires
Makes a material for new knights & quires:
The Martial Prophous is taught to flow:
She knads the unpurish Philosophic Daugh,
Then marks the unyielding snaps with graves designs,
Law, Surveys, Politics & deep Divines. —
Last, she sublimes the Aurora of the Blue,
The flashing elements of Female Soul. —
The ordered system find before her stood,
Nature, well pleased, pronounced it very good. —

- 617 WILLIAMS (William) Signed the Declaration of Independence, A.L.s. 1 p. 4to, Lebanon, Nov, 1806, to T. S. Williams, Attorney at Law, Hartford asking him to act legally for a friend

... as by the return of the British Army to N. York and Carlton to Canada the communication will be kept fully open . . . Some very considerable success has been had against the Cherokees, a number of their towns have been burnt . . .

A LONG AND IMPORTANT LETTER

- 619 BURNS (Robert) A REMARKABLE A. L. s. 3½ pp. folio, Ellisland, 5th Sept, 1788, to Mrs. Dunlop of Dunlop, Moreham Mains, Haddington, containing his WELL KNOWN POEM "TO ROBT. GRAHAM OF FINTRY" :

Here I am again, dear Madam, dating my letter from this haunt of the CUMMINS, this elbow of existence; and here am I in the middle of my harvest, without good-weather when I may have Reapers, and without Reapers when I may have good weather. The tremendous thunder-storm of yesternight and the lurid fogs of this morning have driven me, for refuge from the Hypochondria which I fear worse than the devil, to my Muse; and my address to Mr. Graham so I have this last minute sat down to give you a copy of it.

To Robt. Graham Esq. of Fintry.

When Nature her great Masterpiece designed,
And framed her last best work—The Human Mind;
Her eye intent on all the mazy plan,
She formed of various parts the various man.

With the following ninety-three lines.

The letter continues :

Will you give me your opinion of these verses? Direct to me for three weeks yet to come at Ellisland, Care of Mr. John McCurdo, Carse, Dunscore by Dumfries. You give so poor an account of your health still, that I shall not be easy till I hear farther of that circumstance, so essential to your own happiness and that of your friends—Among which ELECT NUMBER you have done him the honor of giving a place to, Madam, your ever grateful humble servt.

Robt. Burns.

Facit Indignatio Versus

I note the moods and fellins, men betray,
And heed them more aught they do or say
The lurking ghosts of many a secret deed
Still born, or haply strangled in its Birth,
These best reveal the smooth Man's inward creed,
These mark the spot where lies the treasure, worth . . .

CONDITIONS OF SALE.

- I. The highest bidder to be the buyer. If any dispute arise the Auctioneer shall have absolute discretion to settle it; and to put any disputed lot up again.
- II. No person to advance less than 1s.; above five pounds 2s. 6d.; and so on in proportion.
- III. All lots are sold subject to the right of the seller or his agent to bid or else to impose a reserve.
- IV. The purchasers to give in their names and places of abode, and, if required, to pay down 10s. in the pound in part payment of the purchase-money, in default of which the lot or lots purchased to be immediately put up again and re-sold.
- V. The lots to be taken away, at the buyer's expense, immediately after the conclusion of the sale; in default of which Messrs. SOTHEY & Co. will not hold themselves responsible if lost, stolen, damaged, or otherwise destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser. If, at the expiration of One Week after the conclusion of the sale, the books or other property are not cleared or paid for, they will then be catalogued for immediate sale, and the expenses, the same as if re-sold, will be added to the amount at which the books were bought. Messrs. SOTHEY & Co. will have the option of re-selling the lots uncleared, either by public or private sale, without any notice being given to the defaulter.
- VI. All the books are presumed to be perfect, unless otherwise expressed: but if, upon collating, any should prove defective, the purchaser will be at liberty to take or reject them, provided they are received back within Fourteen Days after the conclusion of the sale, when the purchase-money will be returned.
- VII. The sale of any book or books is not to be set aside on account of any worm holes, stained or short leaves of text or plates, want of list of plates or blank leaves, or on account of the publication of any subsequent volume, supplement, appendix, or plates. All the manuscripts, autographs, all magazines and reviews, all books in lots, and all tracts in lots or volumes, will be sold with all faults, imperfections and errors of description. The sale of any illustrated book, lot of prints or drawings, is not to be set aside on account of any error in the enumeration of the numbers stated, or error of description.
- VIII. No Imperfect Book will be taken back, unless a note accompanies each book, stating its imperfections, with the number of lot and date of the sale at which the same was purchased.
- IX. To prevent inaccuracy in the delivery, and inconvenience in the settlement of the purchases, no lot can on any account be removed during the time of sale.
- X. Upon failure of complying with the above conditions, the money required and deposited in part of payment shall be forfeited; and if any loss is sustained in the re-selling of such lots as are not cleared or paid for, all charges on such re-sale shall be made good by the defaulters at this sale.

Messrs. SOTHEY & Co. are prepared to advise intending purchasers, as far as possible, and will execute bids on their behalf, free of charge. Lots will be procured as cheaply as is permitted by other bids or reserves, if any.

The Property of Dr. G. S. Malik.

223 DĀSTĀN-I-AMĪR HAMZAH "The Romance of Amīr Hamzah", who was granted the title Asad-ullah "Lion of God" by the Prophet Muhammad. One Leaf of the MS. written according to Abul Fazl in twelve volumes with 1400 illustrations by the greatest artists of the day, and illuminated by Mīr Sayyad 'Alī of Tabriz, in or soon after 1556, and considered to have been executed certainly in the early years of the reign of Akbar, as they mark the transitional interval between the work of the Timurid School and that of the Mughal School.

The painting is executed in tempera colours and gold, on cotton fabric treated with a slip and polished, backed by paper on which is the text in Nasta'liq; the text being considered to be by Khwāja 'Abduccamad of Shiraz, entitled Shirin-qalam "Sweet Pen", who entered the service of Humayun in 1549. It is assumed that Akbar, to please his Moslem subjects, caused these books to be destroyed, retaining some of the pictures, which evidently fell into the hands of Aurangzib, as some in the Vienna Collections bear his library seal dated 1688.

Of those known to be in existence, twenty-five are in the Indian Section of the Victoria and Albert Museum, and sixty-one in the Oesterreichisches Museum für Kunst und Industrie, and a few others in private hands. On many of these drawings the faces have been defaced by Moslem fanatics.

The subject of the illustration on this specimen is not discoverable by the text on the back, which deals with some other part of the story. It is a group of twenty-six figures, whose faces have not been purposely spoiled, in front of four tents, some engaged in flaying a man for whom a sufficient ransom has not been paid, as the treasurer has loosened the balance in his grasp and is apparently dissatisfied with the amount of silver nuggets in the bowls before him, while two women, whose camels suggest their recent arrivals, watch him with distress. The miniature itself agrees with the usual size of other known specimens, but has its full margins, now considerably worn, but at one time decorated with animated subjects, and the text at the back; full size, $31\frac{3}{4}$ in. by $23\frac{1}{4}$ in.; framed.

- 320 WESLEY (John) A. L. s. 1 p. 8vo, Bristol, Sept. 22, 1788, to his sister :
As John Astley has deserted me and George Whitfield is but just come into his place, I do not yet know anything of my own circumstances.
- 321 WASHINGTON (George) A. L. s. 1 p. 4to, Williamsburg, Decr. 16, 1769, drawing money
- 322 DICKENS (Charles) A. L. s. 2 pp. 8vo, 21 Aug. 1858, an amusing letter concerning the arrangements for his Northern Tour, with the original envelope signed in the corner by Dickens

The Property of the late Sir George Alexander.

SOLD BY ORDER OF LADY ALEXANDER.

- 325 HARDY (Thomas) A VERY FINE A. L. s. 3 pp. 8vo, Max Gate, Sept. 12, 1892, to Mr. (afterwards Sir George) Alexander :
The story to which you refer begins in the Illustrated London News on the 1st. Oct. and ends at Christmas . . . It would fall incidently into 3 Acts—in the first the man is 20, in the second, 40 and in the third 60 years of age.
This refers to "The Pursuit of the Well-Beloved : A Sketch of Temperament"
- 326 HARDY (Thomas) A. L. s. 2½ pp. 8vo, Max Gate, Oct. 7, 1892, to the same and referring to "THE PURSUIT OF THE WELL-BE-LOVED" :
. . . I find that, though it seems to promise well for the chief male characters, there is rather a formidable difficulty about the womankind . . . But I should like you to read the story.

- 327 HARDY (Thomas) A. L. s. 1 p. 8vo, Mar Gate, Sept. 1. 1916 to the same :

Would you be willing to read a play by a friend of mine and my Wife's who calls himself "E. Worlingworth". . . I may say at once that I am not the Author . . .

- 328 WILDE (Oscar) A. L. s. 1 p. 8vo, n. d. to the same :

Come and see me tomorrow—Sunday—if you are in Chelsea and congratulate me, as I am sure you will, on the baby!

- 329 WILDE (Oscar) A VERY FINE A. L. s. 8 pp. 8vo, 16 Tite St. n. d. to the same :

. . . as you wished to see my somewhat farcical comedy, I send you the first copy of it. It is called "Lady Lancing" on the cover; but the real title is "THE IMPORTANCE OF BEING EARNEST," when you read the play, you will see the punning title's meaning. I know and admire Pinero's work, but who is Jones? I have never heard of Jones. Have you?

- 330 WILDE (Oscar) A FINE A. L. s. "Oscar," 8 pp. 8vo. The Haven, Worthing, n. d. to the same, referring to the Importance of being Earnest :

. . . I thought from your silence that you thought the play too farcical . . for a theatre like your own . . . As regards the American rights; when you go to the States, it won't be to produce a farcical comedy—you will go as a romantic actor of modern and costume pieces—my play, though the dialogue is sheer comedy, is the best I have ever written.

- 331 WILDE (Oscar) A. L. s. 5 pp. 8vo, Hotel D'Alsace, Paris (July 1900), The year of his death, to the same :

My dear Aleck,

It was really a great pleasure to see you again, and to receive your friendly grasp of the hand after so many years . . . I know now how to value things like that . . .

He concludes by saying that if Alexander will send him £20 the first of every month, he (Wilde) would have before him a year free from worry, and perhaps he might do something Alexander would like.

- 332 WILDE (Oscar) A. L. s. 7 pp. 8vo, 16 Tite Street, n. d. to the same :

. . . I can't get a grip of the play yet—I can't get my people real . . . You will be interested to hear that the Duchess of Padua was produced in New York last Wednesday . . . it was a great and huge success . . . I am delighted to hear you had a brilliant opening at the St. James'.

- 333 WILDE (Oscar) AN IMPORTANT A. L. s. 12 pp. 8vo, 16 Tite St. n. d. to the same, concerning "LADY WINDERMERE'S FAN" :

I heard by chance in the theatre today—after you had left the stage—that you intended using the first scene a second time—in the last act. I think you should have told me this . . . you have not given me what I wanted, and what my position, as the creator of the play, entitles me to . . . Pray give your serious attention to all these points.

- 339 DICKENS (Charles) Two A. L. s. 5 pp. 8vo. (one initials), Broadstairs and Bonchurch, 1845 and 9, to SIR T. N. TALFOURD :

The first deals with a contemplated visit to Manchester and his objection to stopping in private houses "we might be prodigiously comfortable at a good Inn!" The second letter deals with a legal matter and mentions Lord Denman.

THACKERAY (W. M.) A. L. s. 1 p. 8vo, October 7th. (n. y.) to Mr. Newmarch

My Mother is still at Mennecy Seine-et-Oise and I think it more likely that the children will go to her than that she will come here; for I shall be absent from London for the greater part of the Autumn and Winter . . .

DODGSON (C. L.) A. L. s. 1880, to Mrs. Letchworth :

. . . I hope you sympathised in the joy of Oxford at ousting Harcourt. He had been so outrageously cheeky that his down-fall was a thing delightful to witness . . .

with other letters of Admiral Lord Howe, 1787, mentioning the loss of H.M.S. Thunderer, Benjamin West, P. R. A., Bernard Barton, Leigh Hunt, Chas. Kingsley, Douglas Jerrold, W. C. Macready, etc. in a 4to album

- 513A DICKENS (Charles) A VERY FINE AND EARLY A. L. s. 3 pp. 8vo, Furnival's Inn, Saturday Morning (n. y.), to Mrs. Austin, concerning money that he had borrowed from her :

. . . when you reminded me of the debt, I was, and had been for months previously, up all night and asleep all day, and that from that happy state of existence I was transferred to one of illness . . . I only returned to reside in my Chambers yesterday . . . I have some money to receive for my writings in about a fortnight's time, and I hope you will then grant me a full pardon as well as a receipt in full.

- 513B DICKENS (C.) A VERY FINE AND EARLY A. L. s. 2 pp. 8vo, Furnival's Inn, Monday Morning (n. y.), to Mrs. Austin :

Inclosed is £5:10:0—the amount I am indebted to you, which I forward with many thanks for your very kind patience. . . . I have had many heavy and pressing demands upon me, during the past year; and that although I have been indefatigable in industry and perseverance, the numerous irons I have been putting in the fire, for the past twelve months, are only just beginning to get warm . . . Accept my warmest thanks for your kindness and attention in inviting Miss Hogarth to your party on Tuesday . . .

 Dickens married Miss Hogarth April 2nd, 1836.

- 521 NELSON (Admiral Viscount) A VERY FINE A. L. s. 4 pp. 4to, Victory Jan. 14, 1804, to Nepean "Private".

... Your King, Country and friends all in their several stations benefit so much by your ability and kindness that none of the three parties can spare you.

He goes on to speak of the bad conditions of several war ships

... the Gibraltar's upper works are actually separating from her bottom, The Kent is very bad, Renown we have just coil'd her with three inch rope. She will soon be ruined, Superb we have with large iron bolts ... I shall complain no more, I ought at this time of service to know what ships and men can do ... I have asserted that if we do not secure Sardinia, France will have it. I am now keeping it from invasion, 8000 men are ready to start from Corsica ... I hope the French fleet will now soon put to sea.

A LETTER OF GREAT INTEREST AND IN THE FINEST STATE OF PRESERVATION

10,000 thanks for your truly kind letter, I will not say flattering because you formed and told me your opinion of men and things exactly as I have found them, the real friends of Sir Hyde would wish for no enquiry for although I am sure there has been nothing in the shape of criminality, yet idleness is the root of all evil, of that I have seen enough. I have much to say to you and for ever shall feel myself your truly abliged

529 ST. VINCENT (John Jervis, Earl of) Admiral of the Fleet, A VERY FINE CORRESPONDENCE comprising 175 A. L. s., 16 L. s. and 28 enclosures, addressed to Sir Evan Nepean, written during the Admiral's office of Commander-in-Chief in the Mediterranean 1797-1802. The letters give a very graphic account of these critical years, and contain many interesting and important references to Lord Nelson—almost the only man in his Fleet that he had anything favourable to report upon (200)

I think it probable that the French Squadron has the Brazels for its destination, the possession of that Noble Country woud amply make up for the loss of their other Colonys and the devastation in St. Domingo. Either Sir Alan Gardner, or I must retire from this Squadron, or the King's Service will suffer essentially . . .

Collingwood has won my heart by coming out so soon . . . Lord Pelham communicated his idea of sending the convicts to New South Wales . . . my opinion was, and is, that a very large expense will be incurr'd without any benefit . . .

As it is probable the French will have some adventures, in the Gulf of St. Lawrence, a Flag Officer will be necessary at Hallifax, as well as Newfoundland . . .

ST. VINCENT. QUOTATIONS, CORRESPONDENCE, 1797-8

You must let me run home for a month or two, in the Winter, or I shall not hold out the war, which will last two years longer, unless Nelson crushes the Armada . . . Nelson has fifteen ships of two decks, and all my frigates, but two, the Leander is so well commended, she will do up one of the Venetian ships in half an hour—I will venture to assert, that in the British Navy, a Squadron so man'd, appointed and commanded, cannot be made up—and I feel quite at ease, for the final event . . .

Nelson will do Bounaparte's business, and accomplish Mr. Dundas's wishes.

There is such a faction against Nelson here, that I wish you would order all the Admirals above him to England, or elsewhere, immediately—the Service cannot go on unless you do this . . .

It is a little unfortunate that this reptile Capt. Knight should by accident have come to me again . . .

I am happy to give Nelson the powerful support, he will receive from the Alexander.

Lord Spencer will shew you the list for Nelson's Squadron and I think you will agree with me, a better cannot be compos'd.

The Spanish officer who came off with a flag of truce yesterday told us Nelson was blocking up Buonaparte in Malta, in the same manner, we blocked Cadiz, and seemed to enjoy it much . . .

Now you have given Sir Robt. Calder, a title, I will tell you, honestly, that he encouraged, nay originated, the faction abt. Nelson, and join'd in the cry.

You have dam'd the Service, to all eternity, by giving way to the scoundrels in the Western Squadron . . . If there were a Flag Officer on your list, capable of commanding this Fleet, I would resign to-morrow, as it is, I must drag on.

I observe in a Newspaper, that Sir Sydney Smith is talked of, for this Service, I beg you will prevent it, for I want none of your "Soi-disant" heroes, pray keep them all to yourself . . . if you send me another Admiral from England, I will strike me Flag, directly.

. . . to suspend my appointment would degrade me, when I want your support against the continual attempts of those under my command to sap the foundation of my authority—and unless I am sustain'd, I shall instantly retire. Unless I have people under me on whom I can depend it will be impossible to carry on the Kings Service.

Sir R. Calder is agitated and alarm'd with this anchorage; he is without shirts, table linen, stocks of everykind with scarce a coat to his back, consequently will thank you to deliver him from these evils—the sooner the better . . .

I can trace to Lord H. Seymour, who from narrow prejudice has done his country irreparable injury, for had I been furnished with this force, instead of your overgrown Fleet lying at Spithead hatching sedition and mutiny the French could never have rear'd their heads with in the Mediterranean.

. . . the old stuff I can trust out of my sight but the others shew their great dissatisfaction on being kept so long at sea, and make me sick.

Formed as your Board is, I am not surprized at the letter you were ordered to write, which I would not endure, for one moment, but for the critical state of Naval operations in these seas, which would suffer in the extreme, was I to avail myself of the permission . . . to return to England . . . but I confess myself not Christian enough, either to forget, or forgive, those, who have most unjustly condemned me unheard.

Describes in nautical language a "dressing-down" he gave to two Captains who had obstructed the Inspector of Marines.

- 530 SALT (Henry) Traveller, Consul-General in Egypt. Four A.L.s. Cairo, 1816-19, to Nepean, he writes as Agent for the East India Company and describes the condition of affairs in the Mediterranean, he learns that the Americans under the pretence of landing stores, have succeeded in obtaining possession of Port Mahon—FORBES (T.) East India Company's Agent at Mocha, concerning MUNGO PARKE—THATCHER (Captain) Account of his Journey to the Forest of Darampore, 1807, MS. 26 pp. folio; and another (7)

- 531 SMITH (Admiral Sir Sidney) Five A. L. s. to Nepean, one written during his imprisonment after capture, another admitting that he has been forbidden to write to Nepean by Lord St. Vincent, with three documents concerning the payments for his escape from Paris—DUTCH FLEET. Report from Capt. von Dirckink demanding payment for the surrender of the Bataviun Squadron and others of naval interest (30)

- 532 TROUBRIDGE (Rear-Admiral Sir Thomas) Led the Line at the Battle of St. Vincent 1797. Nine A. L. s. 1800, to Nepean and St. Vincent, mentioning the peace with America

Lord Nelson will never come without Lady H., she has been told that she cannot be rec'd at St. James's. I am sorry the Americans have made the peace, I think it likely they will now grow troublesome to us, the French Interest is gaining in America . . .

He goes on to express his pleasure that Malta has been captured and presses its importance to Britain. Speaks slightly of several "old women" Captains . . . these old Ladies which have forgot all they ever knew.

—BATAVIAN NAVY. Report on the Establishment and Personal, 1790 and 1794, MS. 9 pp. folio—REPORTS from Agents on Naval Affairs from Copenhagen, Paris, St. Petersburg, The Hague, etc. 1799-1802 (39)

Apologising for not writing in German in which his orthography is very weak. He gives his proposed programme of a concert of his works, specifying Suite No. 3, Serenade for strings, and the Casse-Noisette Suite de Ballet (Der Nusskracker) which he has just composed. He mentions his Concerto No. 1, in Si Mol Minor, and praises Wassili Sapellnikoff, etc.
5. 543] SHAW (George Bernard) A. L. s. 2 pp. 8vo, 27 February, 1884, to Mrs. Radford
A humorous letter respecting Mr. Radford's invitation to lunch. He forearms her against himself . . . "I am a species of savage and cannot be entertained like a civilized man. In short, I am a vegetarian. On my birthday, and on public holidays, I eat peas pudding and baked potatoes . . . I am afraid you will find to your cost, I talk intolerably . . . It is a dreadful thing to meet the eye of a hostess whose good things you have refused. I had almost rather eat a beefsteak than face it. You know the worst now," etc.
- 544 MOORE (George) A. L. s. 2 pp. 8vo, to Mr. Bainton, sending Synge's "Dierdin" which he recommends to Mr. B's son as suitable for an opera, to be set to music, and warns him against the flimsy affected nonsense which young people are apt to mistake for masterpieces, with envelope [1918]

Inviting him to send any papers or particulars against Jean Guillot arrested at Paris, who appears to be a counter-revolutionary. Fouquier has nothing to prove it. In default of that indicate some witnesses. The judge's reply is on the same letter. His predecessor and he can find nothing against this man send him a copy of the judge's original note and he will make researches.

- 548 SCHILLER (J. F.) A. L. s. "Schiller," 3 pp. 4to, Jena, 7 August, '97, to the composer Zelter, Goëthe's friend

Schiller thanks Zelter for his beautiful melodies, especially "Au Mignon." His friend Mendelsohn describes much of the music for the Reiterlied (the famous song "Frisch Auf Kameraden Aufs Pferd aufs Pferd," from "Wallenstein"). He does not send more parts of his Tragedy because he has not completed it, and won't let it go out of his hands. He sends a ballad and a poem which are suitable for music. As to "Die Worte des Glaubens," Zelter can decide.

574 TOLSTOI (Leo) A. L. s. 1 p. 8vo, 21 Oktober, to Prince Dimitry Obolensky, in Russian:

Just at this moment dearest prince, I have had a hint that in Melekinski and in the environs of Gorjatschkinski all the game has been completely exterminated by Bibikov and Glebov. It is no good going there any more.

Yours very truly,
Count Leo Tolstoi.

575 TOLSTOI (Leo) A. L. s. 1 full p. 8vo, n. y., to the same:

I would really come to your ball, dearest prince, if—as once Wassili Gortschakow wrote to me—I had a pair of really elegant trousers. But I fear that my trousers and swallow-tail coat would not harmonize with the elegance of your ball, as those trousers, etc. were made in 1856. But you have the kind habit of brushing aside all difficulties, and if you will lend me your tail-coat and trousers or those of Mr. H. Samarine, notwithstanding that they would be too small and inconvenient for me. But joking apart, I could not come to your ball; I am just starting for Toula, but will not fail to call before I depart.

Yours
Count Leo Tolstoi.

- 576 [BALLOONING]. A. L. s. "Robertson," 2 pp. 4to [n. y.], in French :

The Académie would like to know approximately, the cost of a great balloon ascent for scientific discoveries. Without saying definitely, he thinks it would cost from 1500 to 2000 fcs. The acid is the most costly and it would require 100 poudres. The other charges are les tonneaux de fer et les tuyaux de fer. He would construct the balloon at his own expence etc., etc.

(E. G. R. Robertson, 1763-1837, Belgian Aëronaut)

- 619 BURNS (Robert) A REMARKABLE A. L. s. 3½ pp. folio, Ellisland, 5th Sept. 1788, to Mrs. Dunlop of Dunlop, Moreham Mains, Haddinton, containing his WELL KNOWN POEM "TO ROBT. GRAHAM OF FINTRY":

Here I am again, dear Madam, dating my letter from this haunt of the CUMMINS, this elbow of existence; and here am I in the middle of my harvest, without good-weather when I may have Reapers, and without Reapers when I may have good weather. The tremendous thunder-storm of yesternight and the lurid fogs of this morning have driven me, for refuge from the Hypochondria which I fear worse than the devil, to my Muse; and my address to Mr. Graham so I have this last minute sat down to give you a copy of it.

To Robt. Graham Esq. of Fintry.

When Nature her great Masterpiece designed,
And framed her last best work—The Human Mind;
Her eye intent on all the mazy plan,
She formed of various parts the various man.

With the following ninety-three lines.

The letter continues:

Will you give me your opinion of these verses? Direct to me for three weeks yet to come at Ellisland, Care of Mr. John McCurdo, Carse, Dunscore by Dumfries. You give so poor an account of your health still, that I shall not be easy till I hear farther of that circumstance, so essential to your own happiness and that of your friends—Among which ELECT NUMBER you have done him the honor of giving a place to, Madam, your ever grateful humble servt.

Robt. Burns.

Facit Indignatio Versus

I note the moods and fellins, men betray,
And heed them more aught they do or say
The lurking ghosts of many a secret deed
Still born, or haply strangled in its Birth,
These best reveal the smooth Man's inward creed,
These mark the spot where lies the treasure, worth ...

A MS. extending to 4 pp. 4to, with fine signature

Printed by J. Davy & Sons, Ltd., 8-9, Frith-street Soho-square, London, W.1 England.

CONDITIONS OF SALE.

- I. The highest bidder to be the buyer. If any dispute arise the Auctioneer shall have absolute discretion to settle it; and to put any disputed lot up again.
- II. No person to advance less than 1s.; above five pounds 2s. 6d.; and so on in proportion.
- III. All lots are sold subject to the right of the seller or his agent to bid or else to impose a reserve.
- IV. The purchasers to give in their names and places of abode, and, if required, to pay down 10s. in the pound in part payment of the purchase-money, in default of which the lot or lots purchased to be immediately put up again and re-sold.
- V. The lots to be taken away, at the buyer's expense, immediately after the conclusion of the sale; in default of which Messrs. SOTHEY & Co. will not hold themselves responsible if lost, stolen, damaged, or otherwise destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser. If, at the expiration of One Week after the conclusion of the sale, the books or other property are not cleared or paid for, they will then be catalogued for immediate sale, and the expenses, the same as if re-sold, will be added to the amount at which the books were bought. Messrs. SOTHEY & Co. will have the option of re-selling the lots uncleared, either by public or private sale, without any notice being given to the defaulter.
- VI. All the books are presumed to be perfect, unless otherwise expressed: but if, upon collating, any should prove defective, the purchaser will be at liberty to take or reject them, provided they are received back within Fourteen Days after the conclusion of the sale, when the purchase-money will be returned.
- VII. The sale of any book or books is not to be set aside on account of any worm holes, stained or short leaves of text or plates, want of list of plates or blank leaves, or on account of the publication of any subsequent volume, supplement, appendix, or plates. All the manuscripts, autographs, all magazines and reviews, all books in lots, and all tracts in lots or volumes, will be sold with all faults, imperfections and errors of description. The sale of any illustrated book, lot of prints or drawings, is not to be set aside on account of any error in the enumeration of the numbers stated, or error of description.
- VIII. No Imperfect Book will be taken back, unless a note accompanies each book, stating its imperfections, with the number of lot and date of the sale at which the same was purchased.
- IX. To prevent inaccuracy in the delivery, and inconvenience in the settlement of the purchases, no lot can on any account be removed during the time of sale.
- X. Upon failure of complying with the above conditions, the money required and deposited in part of payment shall be forfeited; and if any loss is sustained in the re-selling of such lots as are not cleared or paid for, all charges on such re-sale shall be made good by the defaulters at this sale.

Messrs. SOTHEY & Co. are prepared to advise intending purchasers, as far as possible, and will execute bids on their behalf, free of charge. Lots will be procured as cheaply as is permitted by other bids or reserves, if any.

DĀSTĀN-I-AMĪR HAMZAH "The Romance of Amīr Hamzah", who was granted the title Asad-ullah "Lion of God" by the Prophet Muhammad. One Leaf of the MS. written according to Abul Fazl in twelve volumes with 1400 illustrations by the greatest artists of the day, and illuminated by Mir Sayyad 'Alī of Tabriz, in or soon after 1556, and considered to have been executed certainly in the early years of the reign of Akbar, as they mark the transitional interval between the work of the Timurid School and that of the Mughal School.

The painting is executed in tempera colours and gold, on cotton fabric treated with a slip and polished, backed by paper on which is the text in Nasta'liq; the text being considered to be by Khwāja 'Abduccamad of Shiraz, entitled Shirin-qalam "Sweet Pen", who entered the service of Humayun in 1549. It is assumed that Akbar, to please his Moslem subjects, caused these books to be destroyed, retaining some of the pictures, which evidently fell into the hands of Aurangzib, as some in the Vienna Collections bear his library seal dated 1688.

Of those known to be in existence, twenty-five are in the Indian Section of the Victoria and Albert Museum, and sixty-one in the Oesterreichisches Museum für Kunst und Industrie, and a few others in private hands. On many of these drawings the faces have been defaced by Moslem fanatics.

The subject of the illustration on this specimen is not discoverable by the text on the back, which deals with some other part of the story. It is a group of twenty-six figures, whose faces have not been purposely spoiled, in front of four tents, some engaged in flaying a man for whom a sufficient ransom has not been paid, as the treasurer has loosened the balance in his grasp and is apparently dissatisfied with the amount of silver nuggets in the bowls before him, while two women, whose camels suggest their recent arrivals, watch him with distress. The miniature itself agrees with the usual size of other known specimens, but has its full margins, now considerably worn, but at one time decorated with animated subjects, and the text at the back; full size, $31\frac{3}{4}$ in. by $23\frac{1}{4}$ in.; framed.

- 320 WESLEY (John) A. L. s. 1 p 8vo, Bristol, Sept. 22, 1788, to his sister :

As John Astley has deserted me and George Whitfield is but just come into his place, I do not yet know anything of my own circumstances.

- 321 WASHINGTON (George) A. L. s. 1 p. 4to, Williamsburg, Decr. 16, 1769, drawing money

- 322 DICKENS (Charles) A. L. s. 2 pp. 8vo, 21 Aug. 1858, an amusing letter concerning the arrangements for his Northern Tour, with the original envelope signed in the corner by Dickens

- 323 CHARLES I. Indenture signed while Prince of Wales, on vellum 1627

- 324 MARIE ANTOINETTE, Doc. s. making an appointment in her Household, on vellum 1773

The Property of the late Sir George Alexander.

SOLD BY ORDER OF LADY ALEXANDER.

- 325 HARDY (Thomas) A VERY FINE A. L. s. 3 pp. 8vo, Max Gate, Sept. 12, 1892, to Mr. (afterwards Sir George) Alexander :

The story to which you refer begins in the Illustrated London News on the 1st. Oct. and ends at Christmas . . . It would fall incidentally into 3 Acts—in the first the man is 20, in the second, 40 and in the third 60 years of age.

This refers to "The Pursuit of the Well-Beloved : A Sketch of Temperament"

- 326 HARDY (Thomas) A. L. s. 2½ pp. 8vo, Max Gate, Oct. 7, 1892, to the same and referring to "THE PURSUIT OF THE WELL-BE-LOVED" :

. . . I find that, though it seems to promise well for the chief male characters, there is rather a formidable difficulty about the womankind . . . But I should like you to read the story.

- 327 HARDY (Thomas) A. L. s. 1 p. 8vo, Max Gate, Sept. 1, 1916 to the same :

Would you be willing to read a play by a friend of mine and my Wife's who calls himself "E. Worlingworth". . . I may say at once that I am not the Author . . .

- 328 WILDE (Oscar) A. L. s. 1 p. 8vo, n. d. to the same :

Come and see me tomorrow—Sunday—if you are in Chelsea and congratulate me, as I am sure you will, on the baby!

- 329 WILDE (Oscar) A VERY FINE A. L. s. 8 pp. 8vo, 16 Tite St. n. d. to the same :

. . . as you wished to see my somewhat farcial comedy, I send you the first copy of it. It is called "Lady Lancing" on the cover; but the real title is "THE IMPORTANCE OF BEING EARNEST," when you read the play, you will see the punning title's meaning. I know and admire Pinero's work, but who is Jones? I have never heard of Jones. Have you?

- 330 WILDE (Oscar) A FINE A. L. s. "Oscar," 8 pp. 8vo. The Haven, Worthing, n. d. to the same, referring to the Importance of being Earnest :

. . . I thought from your silence that you thought the play too farcical . . . for a theatre like your own . . . As regards the American rights; when you go to the States, it won't be to produce a farcial comedy—you will go as a romantic actor of modern and costume pieces—my play, though the dialogue is sheer comedy, is the best I have ever written.

- 331 WILDE (Oscar) A. L. s. 5 pp. 8vo, Hotel D'Alsace, Paris (July 1900), The year of his death, to the same :

My dear Aleck,

It was really a great pleasure to see you again, and to receive your friendly grasp of the hand after so many years . . . I know now how to value things like that . . .

He concludes by saying that if Alexander will send him £20 the first of every month, he (Wilde) would have before him a year free from worry, and perhaps he might do something Alexander would like.

- 332 WILDE (Oscar) A. L. s. 7 pp. 8vo, 16 Tite Street, n. d. to the same :

. . . I can't get a grip of the play yet—I can't get my people real . . . You will be interested to hear that the Duchess of Padua was produced in New York last Wednesday . . . it was a great and huge success . . . I am delighted to hear you had a brilliant opening at the St. James'.

- 333 WILDE (Oscar) AN IMPORTANT A. L. s. 12 pp. 8vo, 16 Tite St. n. d. to the same, concerning "LADY WINDERMERE'S FAN" :

I heard by chance in the theatre today—after you had left the stage—that you intended using the first scene a second time—in the last act. I think you should have told me this . . . you have not given me what I wanted, and what my position, as the creator of the play, entitles me to . . . Pray give your serious attention to all these points.

 One of the finest Wilde letters ever offered for sale.

Other Properties.

- 333A WILDE (Oscar) A. L. s. 2 pp. 8vo, Woodstock, Ontario, May, 1882 :

I have been obliged to alter my Boston lecture to next Friday, so will not be in New York till the next week. . . . I have had a charming time here and very large audiences. . . . What paper! What ink!! what an envelope!!!

- 333B SHAW (G. Bernard) A. L. s. 2 pp. 8vo, 10, Adelphi Terrace, June, 1900, mentioning the Devil's Disciple :

. . . When people do my plays, their skins come off on the twelfth night, as if they had had scarlet fever. . . . Goes on to speak of Hogarth's portrait of Capt. Coram, and wants a man like that for the part of Anderson.

- 339 DICKENS (Charles) Two A. L. s. 5 pp. 8vo. (one initials), Broadstairs and Bonchurch, 1845 and 9, to SIR T. N. TALFOURD :

The first deals with a contemplated visit to Manchester and his objection to stopping in private houses "we might be prodigiously comfortable at a good Inn!" The second letter deals with a legal matter and mentions Lord Denman.

THACKERAY (W. M.) A. L. s. 1 p. 8vo, October 7th. (n. y.) to Mr. Newmarch

My Mother is still at Mennecy Seine-et-Oise and I think it more likely that the children will go to her than that she will come here; for I shall be absent from London for the greater part of the Autumn and Winter . . .

DODGSON (C. L.) A. L. s. 1880, to Mrs. Letchworth :

. . . I hope you sympathised in the joy of Oxford at ousting Harcourt. He had been so outrageously cheeky that his down-fall was a thing delightful to witness . . .

with other letters of Admiral Lord Howe, 1787, mentioning the loss of H.M.S. Thunderer, Benjamin West, P. R. A., Bernard Barton, Leigh Hunt, Chas. Kingsley, Douglas Jerrold, W. C. Macready, etc. in a 4to album

- 513A DICKENS (Charles) A VERY FINE AND EARLY A. L. s. 3 pp. 8vo, Furnival's Inn, Saturday Morning (n. y.), to Mrs. Austin, concerning money that he had borrowed from her :

... when you reminded me of the debt, I was, and had been for months previously, up all night and asleep all day, and that from that happy state of existence I was transferred to one of illness . . . I only returned to reside in my Chambers yesterday . . . I have some money to receive for my writings in about a fortnight's time, and I hope you will then grant me a full pardon as well as a receipt in full.

- 513B DICKENS (C.) A VERY FINE AND EARLY A. L. s. 2 pp. 8vo, Furnival's Inn, Monday Morning (n. y.), to Mrs. Austin :

Inclosed is £5:10:0—the amount I am indebted to you, which I forward with many thanks for your very kind patience. . . . I have had many heavy and pressing demands upon me, during the past year; and that although I have been indefatigable in industry and perseverance, the numerous irons I have been putting in the fire, for the past twelve months, are only just beginning to get warm . . . Accept my warmest thanks for your kindness and attention in inviting Miss Hogarth to your party on Tuesday . . .

8 521 NELSON (Admiral Viscount) A VERY FINE A. L. s. 4 pp. 4to, Victory Jan. 14, 1804, to Nepean "Private" 15/10/1

... Your King, Country and friends all in their several stations benefit so much by your ability and kindness that none of the three partys can spare you. 11/9

He goes on to speak of the bad conditions of several war ships

... the Gibraltar's upper works are actually separating from her bottom, The Kent is very bad, Renown we have just coil'd her with three inch rope. She will soon be ruined, Superb we have with large iron bolts ... I shall complain no more, I ought at this time of service to know what ships and men can do ... I have asserted that if we do not secure Sardinia, France will have it. I am now keeping it from invasion, 8000 men are ready to start from Corsica ... I hope the French fleet will now soon put to sea.

A LETTER OF GREAT INTEREST AND IN THE FINEST STATE OF PRESERVATION

10,000 thanks for your truly kind letter, I will not say flattering because you formed and told me your opinion of men and things exactly as I have found them, the real friends of Sir Hyde would wish for no enquiry for although I am sure there has been nothing in the shape of criminality, yet idleness is the root of all evil, of that I have seen enough. I have much to say to you and for ever shall feel myself your truly abliged

40. 529 ST. VINCENT (John Jervis, Earl of) Admiral of the Fleet, A VERY FINE CORRESPONDENCE comprising 175 A. L. s., 16 L. s. and 28 enclosures, addressed to Sir Evan Nepean, written during the Admiral's office of Commander-in-Chief in the Mediterranean 1797-1802. The letters give a very graphic account of these critical years, and contain many interesting and important references to Lord Nelson—almost the only man in his Fleet that he had anything favourable to report upon (200)

I think it probable that the French Squadron has the Brazels for its destination, the possession of that Noble Country wou'd amply make up for the loss of their other Colonys and the devastation in St. Domingo. Either Sir Alan Gardner, or I must retire from this Squadron, or the King's Service will suffer essentially . . .

Collingwood has won my heart by coming out so soon . . . Lord Pelham communicated his idea of sending the convicts to New South Wales . . . my opinion was, and is, that a very large expense will be incurr'd without any benefit . . .

As it is probable the French will have some adventures, in the Gulf of St. Lawrence, a Flag Officer will be necessary at Hallifax, as well as Newfoundland . . .

ST. VINCENT. QUOTATIONS, CORRESPONDENCE, 1797-8

You must let me run home for a month or two, in the Winter, or I shall not hold out the war, which will last two years longer, unless Nelson crushes the Armada . . . Nelson has fifteen ships of two decks, and all my frigates, but two, the Leander is so well commended, she will do up one of the Venetian ships in half an hour—I will venture to assert, that in the British Navy, a Squadron so man'd, appointed and commanded, cannot be made up—and I feel quite at ease, for the final event . . .

Nelson will do Bounaparte's business, and accomplish Mr. Dundas's wishes.

There is such a faction against Nelson here, that I wish you would order all the Admirals above him to England, or elsewhere, immediately—the Service cannot go on unless you do this . . .

It is a little unfortunate that this reptile Capt. Knight should by accident have come to me again . . .

I am happy to give Nelson the powerful support, he will receive from the Alexander.

Lord Spencer will shew you the list for Nelson's Squadron and I think you will agree with me, a better cannot be compos'd.

The Spanish officer who came off with a flag of truce yesterday told us Nelson was blocking up Buonaparte in Malta, in the same manner, we blocked Cadiz, and seemed to enjoy it much . . .

Now you have given Sir Robt. Calder, a title, I will tell you, honestly, that he encouraged, nay originated, the faction abt. Nelson, and join'd in the cry.

You have dam'd the Service, to all eternity, by giving way to the scoundrels in the Western Squadron . . . If there were a Flag Officer on your list, capable of commanding this Fleet, I would resign to morrow, as it is, I must drag on.

I observe in a Newspaper, that Sir Sydney Smith is talked of, for this Service, I beg you will prevent it, for I want none of your "Soi-disant" heroes, pray keep them all to yourself . . . if you send me another Admiral from England, I will strike me Flag, directly.

. . . to suspend my appointment would degrade me, when I want your support against the continual attempts of those under my command to sap the foundation of my authority—and unless I am sustain'd, I shall instantly retire. Unless I have people under me on whom I can depend it will be impossible to carry on the Kings Service.

Sir R. Calder is agitated and alarm'd with this anchorage; he is without shirts, table linen, stocks of everykind with scarce a coat to his back, consequently will thank you to deliver him from these evils—the sooner the better . . .

I can trace to Lord H. Seymour, who from narrow prejudice has done his country irreparable injury, for had I been furnished with this force, instead of your overgrown Fleet lying at Spithead hatching sedition and mutiny the French could never have rear'd their heads with in the Mediterranean.

. . . the old stuff I can trust out of my sight but the others shew their great dissatisfaction on being kept so long at sea, and make me sick.

Formed as your Board is, I am not surprized at the letter you were ordered to write, which I would not endure, for one moment, but for the critical state of Naval operations in these seas, which would suffer in the extreme, was I to avail myself of the permission . . . to return to England . . . but I confess myself not Christian enough, either to forget, or forgive, those, who have most unjustly condemned me unheard.

Describes in nautical language a "dressing-down" he gave to two Captains who had obstructed the Inspector of Marines.

Inviting him to send any papers or particulars against Jean Guillot arrested at Paris, who appears to be a counter-revolutionary. Fouquier has nothing to prove it. In default of that indicate some witnesses. The judge's reply is on the same letter. His predecessor and he can find nothing against this man send him a copy of the judge's original note and he will make researches.

- 548 SCHILLER (J. F.) A. L. s. "Schiller," 3 pp. 4to, Jena, 7 August, '97, to the composer Zelter, Goëthe's friend

Schiller thanks Zelter for his beautiful melodies, especially "Au Mignon." His friend Mendelsohn describes much of the music for the Reiterlied (the famous song "Frisch Auf Kameraden Aufs Pferd aufs Pferd," from "Wallstein"). He does not send more parts of his Tragedy because he has not completed it, and won't let it go out of his hands. He sends a ballad and a poem which are suitable for music. As to "Die Worte des Glaubers," Zelter can decide.

574 TOLSTOI (Leo) A. L. s. 1 p. 8vo, 21 Oktober, to Prince Dimitry Obolensky, in Russian:

Just at this moment dearest prince, I have had a hint that in Melekinski and in the environs of Gorjatschkinski all the game has been completely exterminated by Bibikov and Gleboy. It is no good going there any more.

Yours very truly,

Count Leo Tolstoi.

575 TOLSTOI (Leo) A. L. s. 1 full p. 8vo, n. y., to the same:

I would really come to your ball, dearest prince, if—as once Wassili Gortschakow wrote to me—I had a pair of really elegant trousers. But I fear that my trousers and swallow-tail coat would not harmonize with the elegance of your ball, as those trousers, etc. were made in 1856. But you have the kind habit of brushing aside all difficulties, and if you will lend me your tail-coat and trousers or those of Mr. H. Samarine, notwithstanding that they would be too small and inconvenient for me. But joking apart, I could not come to your ball; I am just starting for Toula, but will not fail to call before I depart.

Yours

Count Leo Tolstoi.

- 576 [BALLOONING]. A. L. s. "Robertson," 2 pp. 4to [n. y.], in French :

The Académie would like to know approximately, the cost of a great balloon ascent for scientific discoveries. Without saying definitely, he thinks it would cost from 1500 to 2000 fcs. The acid is the most costly and it would require 100 poudres. The other charges are les tonneaux de fer et les tuyaux de fer. He would construct the balloon at his own expence etc., etc.

- 619 BURNS (Robert) A REMARKABLE A. L. s. 3½ pp. folio, Ellisland, 5th Sept, 1788, to Mrs. Dunlop of Dunlop, Moreham Mains, Haddington, containing his WELL KNOWN POEM "TO ROBT. GRAHAM OF FINTRY":

Here I am again, dear Madam, dating my letter from this haunt of the CUMMINS, this elbow of existence; and here am I in the middle of my harvest, without good-weather when I may have Reapers, and without Reapers when I may have good weather. The tremendous thunder-storm of yesternight and the lurid fogs of this morning have driven me, for refuge from the Hypochondria which I fear worse than the devil, to my Muse; and my address to Mr. Graham so I have this last minute sat down to give you a copy of it.

To Robt. Graham Esq. of Fintry.

When Nature her great Masterpiece designed,
And framed her last best work—The Human Mind;
Her eye intent on all the mazy plan,
She formed of various parts the various man.

With the following ninety-three lines.

The letter continues:

Will you give me your opinion of these verses? Direct to me for three weeks yet to come at Ellisland, Care of Mr. John McCurdo, Carse, Dunscore by Dumfries. You give so poor an account of your health still, that I shall not be easy till I hear farther of that circumstance, so essential to your own happiness and that of your friends—Among which ELECT NUMBER you have done him the honor of giving a place to, Madam, your ever grateful humble servt.

Facit Indignatio Versus

I note the moods and fellins, men betray,
And heed them more aught they do or say
The lurking ghosts of many a secret deed
Still born, or haply strangled in its Birth,
These best reveal the smooth Man's inward creed,
These mark the spot where lies the treasure, worth ...
